SPORTS FOR VICTORY

WHEREAS: Americans have traditionally fought against Jim Crowism and oppression of any people, and have given their lives to maintain the democratic principles of America.

This is best expressed in the spirit of fair play which governs the sports world, where the performance of Negro football, baseball, basketball and track stars and swimmers and fighters has disproved completely the false theory that one race, or group or nationality is superior to another.

Further proof that Americans disapprove of Jim Crowism can be demonstrated through the arrangement of a series of games between the leading Negro ball teams of the country and the Dodgers, Yankoes and Giants.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That this Convention calls upon the managers of the Dodgers, the Yankoes and the Giants to contact the major Negro leagues to arrange such a series of games, the proceeds of which shall go to some worthy cause in support of the war effort.
